All things . . . Good??

1. First, Romans 8:28 doesn't mean we can live _____ and God will _____

- “of those _____, who have been called according to _____”

☞ “God allows what he _____ to accomplish what he _____.” Joni E Tada

2. Second, Romans 8:28 tells us God can _____ all things together for good. He doesn't _____ all things are good.

☞ All things may not _____, but God can and will use all things _____

3. its accompanying verse, Romans 8:29 is the _____ God wants to accomplish in the lives of his children:

☞ “For those God foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the _____, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers” (v. 29).

God's Purposes: “God allows everything into our lives for one of two purposes—

☞ either to bring us into a _____ with himself

☞ or, if we already know him, to make us _____”

“And we know.”

☞ “This is not conjecture, this is not happenstance, this is not perhaps, this is not maybe; this is ironclad _____ ‘We _____ that all things work together for _____.’” Adrian Rogers

We can have _____

☞ no suffering is wasted, and God is always at work for _____.

☞ When we cannot comprehend why trials come and struggle to imagine that anything good can come from them, we can rest in the security that _____

☞ Because of this, we can have _____
